SCHOUTEN

For the past 10 years ROB & VICTORY SCHOUTEN have been the owners of Rob Schouten Gallery. They have been involved in the arts since 1980, Rob as a visual artist and Victory as a literary artist. Victory's career in marketing professional theater began in 1981 at the Seattle Group Theater. In 1988 they began Great Path Publishing, a small company publishing greeting cards and art prints for numerous artists with distribution throughout the US, Canada and NW Europe, which they ran until 2005. They were co-founders of Burning Word Poetry Festival.

What we look for in an award winning piece of art is:

- Artistic originality
